H. C. H. S. NOTES

The H. C. H. S. observed "Better English Week" from Nov. 1. to Nov. 5. "Better English Week" is a week designated by education all over the United States in which to further the better speech movement.

The annual Red Cross drive in Burns has been turned over to the high school girls. The committees appointed by Miss Anderson have as their captains, June Dalton, Jessie Shepard, Hazel Hibbard, and Opal Downs.

The campaign started Armistice Day with every girl determined to do her best, in making this drive a success. The public is requested by the County Committee and the high school girls to be as liberal and considerate as possible, because we did not invite this drive.

Have your dollar ready and remember that half of the money received goes to the County Public Health Association, which maintains the Public Health Nurse.

Saturday, November 6, the Freshman class was entertained by the Sophomore class at the High school. An ingenious program had been planned which with the assistance of Miss Freese, Anderson and Wheldon proved a great success.

Unable to obtain a game with Prineville, and only able to land a Thanksgiving Day game with Redmond was the net result of the efforts made to continue our football season. The squad therefore, broke training and called it "finis" for 1920.

The golden H was awarded the following men: Clark, Cueni, Cooley, Swett R. Hibbard, Swett W. Hotchkiss, Loggan, McCulloch, R. Gowan, Reineman, Voegtly, Thornburg, Wolcome, Horton R. M. Richardson.

The following have been elected as managers: Football, C. Gowan, '23, Baseball, J. Dalton, '22, Track, F. Loggan, '23.

At a meeting of the letter men Wesley Welcome was selected Captain of the football eleven for next year.

Adolph Byrd, '24, left in company with Mr. McDaniels, Jack McDaniels and Herbert Whiting for the Stock show in Portland. He will be one of the team to represent this county in stock judging.

The "Rodeo" staff is now complete Editor, Frances Donegan, '21; Asst. Editor, Jessie Shepard, '22; Literary, F. Loggan, J. Dalton; Athletic, Rex Clark; Society, Hazel Hibbard; Art, Opal Downs; Humor, Frank Reineman; Classes, Milton Brown, '21; J. Shepard, '22; B. Goodman, '23; M. Richardson, '24; Business Manager, R. Gowan; Assist. Business Manager, W. Welcome.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TAKES NEW NAME

For the purpose of extending its influence over a wider territory the First Presbyterian Church of Burns has changed its name to the Community Presbyterian Church of Burns. This action was taken at a meeting of the session and congregation held at the church on Tuesday evening of this week.

The suggestion was made for this change a few weeks ago and in accordance a petition was addressed to the Presbytery asking permission for such change. This petition was granted and Rev. Wm. Baird, who is clerk of the Presbytery, came to Burns and met with the interested people to ratify the change which is effective on January 1st, 1921.

The session elected new officers at this meeting, making the Ruling Elders: John B. Crozier, Alex Grant Thompson, A. S. Swain, and William Stirling, the latter being elected clerk of the session.

The board of trustees elected are: Julian Byrd, Wm. Farre, A. S. Swain, Mrs. S. A. Howell-Martz is the permanent clerk of the congregation and the financial secretary and treasurer is Mrs. C. W. Loggan.

WE STAND CORRECTED

Last week The Times-Herald took its neighbors over in Crook county to task because from a table of figures published in the Portland Journal it appeared that they had voted favorable to the bird bill.

"Official count here shows the bird bill has 262 votes favorable and 996 against. The local press fought the passage of the bill. Please correct injustice to your neighbors.—The Call." Hurrah for Crook county. We take off our hats.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

The Willing Workers, an organized class of young people of the Baptist Sunday School, held its class party at the home of Miss Mae Brittingham, on Friday eve, Nov. 5th. There were thirty five present.

this, the first of several parties to be held this winter, was a success. Their teacher, Mrs. Tickner, was ably assisted by Mrs. Homer Reed and Mrs. Chas. Brittingham.

Married—At the Levens Hotel, yesterday afternoon, Nov. 12, Byron A. Bennett and Miss Elsie Hill were united in marriage by Rev. John H. Wisherson, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The young people are residents of the Princeton section, the bride being the daughter of T. B. Hill, one of the energetic farmers of that locality. They will make their home in that neighborhood.

FOR SALE—Horses, cattle, turkeys, chickens, grain, 86 tons of wild hay, turnips and carrots. Inquire of Claud McGee, Burns, Oregon, on Narrows road. 11-13-20.

Claude Shown, a nephew of Mrs. Lem Lowe and J. W. Shown, arrived here the other day from Spokane where he has been working. He is visiting with relatives in this city, a guest at the Lem Lowe home where Robert Lowe is also visiting for a short time before his furlough ends and he has to return to the U. S. navy.

Our Customers Tell Us that there is all the difference in the world between the old style wire wound broom they've been accustomed to using and the

LITTLE POLLY Kambath Process BROOM

They say this difference is not merely in appearance; Little Polly is not only a lighter broom, with a tip more flexible than the old style wire wound broom, but it doesn't break at the shoulders or wear to a point at the tip like other brooms.

After you've used one Little Polly, you'll understand why we're proud to say we sell it.
